
Background materials for the design contest

As of the day of the design contest announcement, the organizer published the conditions of participation and background materials on the sponsor's profile , including additional information for the potential contestants. Answers to questions followed.

The background materials for the contest were available in the digital form. Neither materials nor conditions were available in print. The background materials were provided for the contestants free of charge.

Once registered on the Czech website of Campus Albertov, the participants received the background material No. 005 – Cadastral map and known utility networks, and background material No. 006 – Digital background materials for a 3D model.