
Documentation

On this page, you will find information about key milestones in the preparation of the Albertov Campus. The overview maps the project's journey from the architectural design competition to the present, when the Biocentre building is already under construction, and offers a comprehensive view of the development of the Albertov Campus project and the sequence of individual preparatory steps.

Design contest

Planning and project documentation

Temporary canteen

